

The QUEENSLANDER PICTORIAL.

OPENING THE BOY SCOUTS NEW HOME IN BRISBANE.

The Government unloading the food.

Details of work-bridge building, first stage.

Bridge building—moving completion.

Food's camp, showing specimens of handicraft.

Boys' camp, showing work.

Boys' camp, showing work.

THE BRADYMAN GATHERING.

Copyright, 1914,
Gleaner.

The first Bradman Highland Gathering since 1913 was held in September and had a record attendance, 10,000 being present. The King and the Duke wore the full dress of the Dalriada Highlanders. The photograph shows the King with the Duke of Connaught, Prince Harry and Lord Aberdeen at the opening.

A Victory in the Game.

Sandy Mackintosh, 65 years of age, a typical old Highland throwing the hammer.

The flower garden at Kany (shown the way of 1917. Kany is very old of the Government).

Vegetable garden at Kany.

Water for house and garden.

Thompson.

Irrigated vegetables.

Wild cotton.

Something like a cotton.

ON THE TRACK OF THE

NORTH-SOUTH TRANSCONTINENTAL.

Francis Brown, photo.

CAMERA COMMUNINGS WITH NATURE.

A young black-winged kingfisher
(Alcedo lunata).

Beautiful dove (Columba livia)
on nest.

Black-winged kingfisher leaving its nesting hollow.

Black-throated flycatcher
(Myiophobus nigricollis).

Little blue bird or featherhead (Phylloscopus melanopus) on its nest.

Australian quail (Centropus australis)
on nest.

Miss Edith Thompson
MORE DOWNS

Miss Edith Thompson

FACE BALL DEBUTANTES

Miss Edith Thompson

Miss Edith Thompson

Miss Edith Thompson

THE CAMPBELL HOUSE

Lyndon, Campbell street, Davenport, which has been purchased from the U. S. Army by the War Service Homes Commission to set up for a soldiers' residential settlement. The area is about 104 acres.

A rather view of the house.

Part of the garden.

A glimpse of the house through the trees.

A corner of the fine garden.